Jim has over 37 years of experience in real estate, real property, title insurance, and civil litigation and is an AV® Preeminent rated lawyer by Martindale-Hubbell. He is a dedicated, zealous and strong advocate for his clients. He is the Chairman of the firm's Real Estate Claims & Title Insurance Solutions Group and his practice includes a broad range of counseling, negotiation, mediation and civil litigation, with an emphasis on real estate, real property, title insurance, mechanic's liens/construction, local government, legal malpractice defense and creditor's rights. He has been selected by peers and recognized by Best Lawyers in America from 2018-2023 in the area of Real Estate, and in Litigation-Construction in 2023. In addition, Jim is currently working with a team of K&C lawyers representing numerous Virginia localities with respect to claims against pharmaceutical manufacturers, distributors and others connected with the opioid addiction epidemic, as a continuation of his long track record of representation of local governments in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Jim has maintained an active litigation practice in involving primarily real estate and construction matters for over 37 years and attached are some reported or published cases in which he was involved.
