| IL | | x | 205 ILCS 305/23 | allows insurance and reasonable expenses | | 205 ILCS 305/23: (1) No director or committee member may receive compensation for his service as such. "Compensation" as used in this subsection (1) refers to remuneration expense to the credit union for services provided by a director or committee member in his or her capacity as director or committee member. "Compensation" as used in this subsection (1) does not include the expense of providing reasonable life, health, accident, and similar insurance protection benefits for a director or committee member. (2) Directors, committee members and employees, while on official business of the credit union, may be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary expenses. Alternatively, the credit union may make direct payment to a third party for such business expenses. Reasonable and necessary expenses may include the payment of travel costs for the foregoing officials and one guest per official. All payment of costs shall be made in accordance with written policies and procedures established by the board of directors. (3) The board of directors may establish compensation for officers of the credit union. |

| NM | | x | 58-11-30 | necessary expenses; insurance not compensation | N.M. Stat. Ann. 58-11-30: No board or committee member may be compensated for services performed in the regular course of duties pertaining to that board or committee position. Notwithstanding any provision of the Credit Union Act [58-11-1 NMSA 1978] to the contrary, board or committee members may be compensated for those services provided to the credit union while temporarily serving in an additional capacity other than as a board or committee member. Reasonable life, accident and similar insurance protection shall not be considered compensation to a board or committee member. Board and committee members may be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary expenses incidental to the |

| NY | | x | Bank sec 470 | | NY CLS Bank 470(1): The board of directors of every credit union shall have the general management of the affairs, funds and records of the corporation. No member of the board of directors shall receive any compensation for his services as a member of the board. Whenever the directors shall deem any loan unsafe they may, in their discretion, require additional security to be given by the borrower, and if such security is not furnished as required by them, they may declare the loan due and take action to collect the same. Complete minutes of all meetings of directors shall be kept which shall include the names of the directors present. |
| NC | | x | 54-109.38 | necessary expenses; insurance not compensation | N.C. Gen. Stat. 54-109.38: No member of the board of directors or of the credit committee or supervisory committee shall be compensated for his service in this position, but providing reasonable life, health, accident and similar insurance protection for a director or committee member shall not be considered compensation. Directors and committee members, while on official business of the credit union, may be reimbursed for necessary and reasonable expenses incidental to the performance of the business. Such reimbursement may include the payment of expenses for one guest. |
