Jonathan is an associate in the firm's Norfolk office and a member of the Commercial Section and the Mergers, Acquisitions & Strategic Alliances Practice Group. Jonathan counsels both public and private companies on matters ranging from day-to-day corporate matters to complex mergers and acquisitions, securities, and venture capital work. Jonathan's practice includes advising sponsors, investors and companies on merger and acquisition transactions, corporate governance, antitrust matters, preferred equity investments, capital restructurings and debt and equity work-outs. Jonathan assists entrepreneurs with business formation, fundraising, compensation, securities, commercialization, mergers and acquisitions, and other matters pertinent to emerging businesses. Prior to practicing law, Jonathan spent more than a decade investing in, operating, and advising both domestic and international retailers, beauty companies, and consumer package goods businesses. He started his professional career working in his family-held national jewelry retailer.
