Lisa is of counsel in the firm's Virginia Beach office and is a member of the firm's Real Estate Claims and Title Insurance Solutions and Consumer Finance practice groups. She has over twenty years of litigation experience in state and federal courts, including appellate advocacy before the Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, Supreme Court of Virginia, and United States Supreme Court. She is an AV® Preeminent-rated litigator by the Martindale-Hubbell registry. Her substantive legal background spans across matters of real estate, consumer and commercial litigation, title insurance, mechanic's liens, construction, local government, professional liability defense, collections, bankruptcy and creditors' rights, and civil litigation. Results-oriented for clients, Lisa recently succeeded in having a writ of certiorari granted by the Virginia Supreme Court's writ panel and also prevailed in defending an appeal before the United States Supreme Court. While understanding that not every case is meant to see the courtroom for its ultimate disposition, she also has significant experience utilizing mediation and judicial settlement conferences in state and federal cases to clients' maximum advantages for early case resolution. Lisa is licensed in the Commonwealth of Virginia and the State of North Carolina.
