

BRANDON S. ALLRED

As chair of Kaufman & Canoles' Real Estate Strategies group, Brandon S. Allred handles a wide range of commercial real estate transactions, including property acquisitions, joint ventures, commercial leasing and development projects, preferred equity investments, and partnerships.

Allred is also a member of the firm's Mergers, Acquisitions & Strategic Alliances and Business Taxation practice groups. His expertise and focus on client service have made him a leading commercial attorney in the Hampton Roads community. Prior to joining Kaufman & Canoles, Allred worked in tax accounting with Ernst & Young in McLean.

A member of LEAD757 Class of 2022, Allred also serves as a young lawyer representative with the Business Law Section Council of the Virginia Bar Association, and on the board of directors of the Cape Henry Collegiate School Alumni Association, Phi Kappa Psi Virginia Beta House Corporation and SMILE, Inc.
